“ Alexis was my childhood best friend. She was confident and bold. She chose me to be her best friend in Kindergarten and we were inseparable. She always had my back. I will never forget her smile and how she always made me laugh. I'm going to miss her and will always have great memories of her. - ”

“ It is with my deepest sympathy that I write this post. Alexis J. Gillespie, who we called Lexi. My heart is saddened to have to post. I am deeply sorry to about this unexpected passing of you daughter. No words can capture the depth of the feeling but know my heart goes out to your beautiful children, mom,dad,brother and sisters Please know that my heart goes out to all of your during this most difficult time. She was a bright light and her memory will forever be cherished. I know first hand that you were definitely the apple of you dad's eye. May you find comfort in the love and support of those around you and remember all the beautiful moments that was shared with her.

2 Timothy 4:7-8. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith

“ My condolences to the Gillespie and Entzminger family. Alexis was a sweet young lady. I remember her riding with me to choir rehearsal every week when she was a teenager. She never gave me any problems. She would read her book to and from choir rehearsal. We love you Alexis but God loves you best.
