“ Alfonzia Maloney... AJ was my brother I hired him in 2006 while working at CMC Steel there was not a close friendship at first but as with everyone that he came into contact with AJ grew on me and we became really good friends we always talked about having a foot race against each other to see who was the fastest... lol. I miss him already but I am just going to remember our times working together and ask GOD to strengthen me where I am weak . Take your rest brother AL. Love you Doc!
