“ Billy was the one of the person that always welcomes you with a very happy personality. This really breaks my heart to see this innocent soul to heaven. I knew something bad happens before I walked in to work. I could feel the sad energy radiating from work. He was one of a kind. I can still see him laughing in the front of the store. He was definitely one of kind. We may not see him personally but I feel his spirit from time to time. Rest in happiness. We will see each other on the other side. You have definitely touch my heart.
