Mrs. Brenda Dean Culler Geiger, was born in Columbia, South Carolina on October 28, 1959 to the late Levi and Thelma Corley Culler. She departed this life Monday, December 9, 2019.

Brenda graduated with the Class of 1977 from Eau Clair High School and furthered her education at Midland's Technical College where she earned a certificate as a Medical Assistant in 1979. Brenda was united in Holy Matrimony to John Patrick Geiger, Sr. on February 15, 1989. She worked in the Lexington/Richland School District Five as a substitute teacher and cafeteria aid. Brenda enjoyed adopting other people, cooking, shopping, singing and going to the casino. She was a very positive person and loved her family and friends. Because of her infectious personality, everyone loved being around Brenda .

Mrs. Geiger was preceded in death by her parents, two sisters and a brother.

Left to cherish precious memories are: her loving husband of thirty years, John Patrick Geiger, Sr.; two sons, John Patrick Geiger, II and Brendon Christopher Geiger; a brother, Warren Corley; four nieces, Pamela R. Youmous, DeAdra C. Culler, Sheyoshia K. Spry and Tammy D. Culler; three nephews, Davon L. Culler, Kamarion A. Vaugh and Steven Culler, a host of cousins, other loving relatives and friends.

Please leave the family your condolences and prayers.

The Geiger family, acknowledges with grateful appreciation, all of your kind expressions of love and sympathy.

Thank you for helping us care for our families. A. A. Dicks, Sr. and Staff.
