“ Carl was a Guard at the FBI facility in Columbia SC. He was the first person I met every morning for 17 years coming in the gate. He always had a story and a smile. I have missed him since his retirement and he will be missed by all his FBI family.

Carl Glover was one of the finest men I have ever met. He saw the best in people and saw something good in every situation. After serving his country in the Army he became one of the first Federal Security Officers at the Strom Thurmond building when we really needed him. It was just after the Oklahoma City bombings and people were afraid it could happen again somewhere else. Carl was a constant. He was so smart and observant he knew everyone's name after meeting you the first time and knew who was supposed to be there and who wasn't. He got to be such good friends with most of us at the FBI that he transferred over to our new building with us in 1997. What a class man. He will be missed by all. My condolences to his family. He is irreplaceable. Go in peace my friend. Rob Waizenhofer
