Ms. Caroline Brabham Edmunds was the second of seven children born to the late Sam Brabham and Maggie Aice on October 27, 1948. She joined her Heavenly Father on Friday, December 10, 2021 at MUSC (Providence) Downtown. Caroline was educated in the Richland County School System and was a 1966 graduate of C. A. Johnson High School. She furthered her education and obtained various certifications from Midlands Technical College.

Caroline met and married John "Billy" Edmunds, Jr. and their friendship continued for many years. Caroline was employed by the South Carolina

Department of Mental Health and the University of South Carolina College of Nursing where she retired on January 15, 2011. She was recognized with multiple Service Awards during her tenure. Even after retirement, Caroline returned to work at the South Carolina Department of Employment and Workforce (SC DEW). Her customer service and administrative skills were unmatched. She assisted an unlimited amount of people, with their return to the work force, with a personality that left a lasting impression.

As a member of Friendship Baptist Church, Caroline served on the Trustee's Ministry, Usher's Ministry, Facility Rentals & Events Team and previously as a Women's Day Chairperson. She also served as the Secretary for the Capital City Ushers Union for many years.

A lover of plants, Caroline never had a flower that she could not make grow or bring back to life. She always told family to speak to her plants because they need love and communication too.

Left to cherish precious memories are: her son, Deron T. Edmunds of Neeses, SC; a daughter, Carla R. Edmunds of Columbia, SC; granddaughter, Taisha I. Edmunds; sister, Brenda B.
