

Mrs. Catherine Johnson Hall

February 4, 1952 - April 23, 2019

Ms. Catherine Johnson Hall, was born on February 4, 1952 to the late Willis and Rosie Lee Thomas Johnson and was reared in Eastover, SC. She gained her wings early Tuesday morning, April 23, 2019 in Manassas, VA.

“Cat”, as she was affectionately known, graduated with the Class of 1970 from Webber High School in Eastover, SC. There, she was a cheerleader and basketball player. Cat worked for the Dorn VA Hospital for several years and was a member of Saint Paul Holiness Church in Eastover, SC prior to moving to Columbia, SC.

Her daughters remember her as being an outgoing person who was very outspoken; she was “one of a kind.” She enjoyed the out-of-doors, playing Bingo, doing crossword puzzles and “people watching.”

Catherine greatest joy was spending family time with her children, grandchildren and other relatives. It was during this time, her sisters, nieces and nephews loved on her. No matter what neighborhood she resided in, children looked to her as their “neighborhood mom.” She had an abundant love for people. Her children did not mind sharing her.

Catherine was preceded in death by her parents and her baby sister, Debbie Johnson.

Left to cherish precious memories are: her four daughters, Monica (Ronald) Smith and D'Joris Thompson both of Columbia, SC, Jennifer Hall of Cayce, SC and Karen (Roderick) Alford of Dumfries, VA; twelve grandchildren, Joshua, Tayla and Ronald Smith, Jr. all of Columbia, SC, Layla Smith of Conway, SC, Andre Heatley, Jr. and Preston Thompson, III also of Columbia, SC, Keshaulnia and Destiny Neal, Jordyn Hall and Bryson Thomas all of Cayce SC, and Desiree and Roderick Alford, Jr. of Dumfries, VA; three great grandchildren, Zaylanna Heatley of Columbia, SC, Karter Neal and N'Kyia Vanover of Cayce, SC; three sisters, Evangelist Leather (Bishop C. R.) Mayers of Charlotte, NC, Flossie Macon of Eastover, SC and Cheryl Flemming of Columbia, SC; a brother, Willie (Dicie) Thomas, Sr. of Eastover, SC; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other loving relatives and caring friends.
