

Mr. Charles Eugene Morgan

January 18, 1955 - November 21, 2016

Mr. Charles Eugene Morgan was born January 18, 1955 in Columbia, South Carolina. He was the youngest son of Pete and Birdie Watson Morgan. "Morg", as he was affectionately known to family and friends, was educated in the public schools of Richland County. He graduated from Dreher High School and shortly thereafter, enlisted in the United States Navy. Charles worked for Richland Memorial Hospital and was a skilled painter more than half his life. Mr. Morgan was of the Protestant faith and was an avid Dallas Cowboy's fan. He was known as a jokester who always made everyone laugh. Yet, he was a very humble man at times. One of his favorite sayings was "I'm blessed. Look at all of my babies". He was referring to his children and grandchildren. His favorite hobbies were cooking, eating and playing spades. He was preceded in death by a beloved son, Charles Eugene Barsh. Left to cherish precious memories are: his beloved, special friend, Sharon Preston; four children, Tara Smith (Lawrence) Williams of Clarksville, TN, Crystal (Gerald) Carter, Charles Eugene and LaKeshia Nicole McKnight all of Columbia, SC; twenty-two grandchildren; three great grandchildren; a host of aunt, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, other loving relatives and friends.
