

Christopher Simmons Jr.

November 22, 1997 - May 19, 2017

Christopher Ladarren Simmons, Jr., was born in Columbia, SC on November 22, 1997 to Sharon Randolph and Christopher Ladarren Simmons, Sr. He departed this life May 19, 2017.

“Q-Ball”, as he was affectionately known by family, was not religious but had a spiritual belief in God. He was educated in the public schools of Richland County where he also attended Eau Clair High School.

“Lil’ Chris”, as he was better known by his friends, was a very respectable, well-mannered individual who had a beautiful smile. Chris was very self confident and loved his family unconditionally. He was very protective of family, especially of his little brothers. Anyone who needed chastising would get his “Farrakhan” lectures in an effort to get them straight. Lil’ Chris was funny and had a great sense of humor. He was sometimes referred to as “Christopher Columbus” by his older brother at times all in fun. He may have looked younger than his age but, the family agrees that he had an “old soul”. Christopher was preceded in death by his maternal grandfather, Raymond Randolph, Sr.; paternal grandfather, Charlie M. Simmons and an uncle, Raymond Randolph, Jr.

Left to cherish precious memories are: his mother, Sharon Marie Randolph; father, Christopher L. Simmons, Sr.; sisters, Brandi K. and Shana M.

Randolph; brothers, Keimari Weeks, Daquian, Taris and Avion Simmons; grandmothers, Mary K. Guess, Linda Randolph and Jennifer C. D. Simmons; aunts, Lillian I. Simmons, April (Nathaniel) Brown, April Randolph and Estelle

(Rodney) Smith; uncles, Demetrius Randolph, Charlie (Cynthia) Simmons, Jr. and Taravol (Deisha) Stafford; nieces, Inkeria and Breyona Randolph; nephew, Daveyon Robinson; a host of cousins, other loving relatives and friends who will miss him dearly.
