*Mrs. "D" was a loving daughter, mother, partner, sister, aunt, great aunt, and friend. Although she didn't get a chance to physically meet her first granddaughter, JaZarah, we all know she would have been a wonderful grandmother too. She enjoyed spending time with her family and friends, baking her famous homemade pound cakes, requesting all her friends and family to vote for her to win this or that on the net and let's not forget watching one of her millions of movies.

*Mrs. Washington attended and graduated from W. J. Keenan High School. Before leaving the workforce after battling with her health, she worked in the hospitality department for fifteen years. She was a member of Friendship Baptist Church, and was well known for the active role she had within her community.

*Debra leaves to cherish her precious memories: her son, Bruce Hunter Jr.; daughter, Brittney T. Hunter; granddaughter, JaZarah Williams; Partner, Bruce Hunter, Sr.; son-in-law Earl Williams; a sister, Cheryl (Joseph) Weston; three brothers, Willie Scott, Jr., Gregory (Maria) Scott and Corey (Tanisha) Scott, Sr;
