

Delores Vance Williams

December 30, 1938 - May 11, 2017

Mrs. Delores Vance Williams was born December 30, 1938 in Charleston, South Carolina to the late Agnes (Isaac) Grant and Julius Vance. She departed this life Thursday, May 11, 2017 in Columbia, South Carolina.

“T-Hound”, as she was affectionately known, was educated in the public schools in Charleston, South Carolina. When she graduated nursing school, she was a hard working, dedicated nurse at the William Jennings Bryan Dorn Veterans Administration Hospital for over thirty years. After her retirement, she remained faithful to what she loved most; nursing and caring for people. She was a caregiver to everyone. Delores was a very very strong, determined minded woman who truly enjoyed helping anyone in need. She loved life, people and serving God.

Mrs. Williams was a member of Wesley United Methodist Church of Columbia South Carolina. She enjoyed going to church, sitting on the porch, doing yard work, taking walks, having company to visit her, finding great deals at the flea market and playing Bingo.

Delores was preceded in death by her husband, the late Joseph Williams, her parents and siblings, Martha Middleton and Leonard Jenkins a very special and dear friend, the late Felder Brunson, God-daughters, the late Vanessa Whaley and Jacqueline Alston

Left to cherish precious memories are her children: Cynthia Washington, Cathy French (Michael Scott Cook) and Tyrone, Marcy and Maria Williams; a host of grand and great grandchildren; a sister and brother, Izetta Williams and George Grant; sister-in-law, Anna Jenkins; an aunt, Mae Nesbitt; an uncle, Albert Jenkins; close friends, Rubell Cook, Ms. Keitt, Mrs. Alma, Ms. Lilly Watson, Melvina and Ray, Nicole Stokes, Marvin Singletary, Joanne Howard, Ms. Pauline, Mamie Smalls, Robert and Vonda; a host of nieces, nephews, other loving relatives and friends whom she adored, admired and loved dearly.

“ Nothing ever prepares you for the loss of a love one.But the loss of a mother a matriark a grandmother a sister a aunt a friend is a great loss. The life you lead speaks for you and Ms. Williams has taken flight to the other side of the Jordan river. But the comfort is the knowing that we will see her again. Its ok to be sad and morn her transistion but God dont make mistakes, He decided that her time here was well done and he plucked a flower from his garden and said come on home my child and take your rest. To my sister Maria and your family we love you all. From The A Team. Tony and Claudia
