

Eeron T. Johnson

February 7, 1971 - November 14, 2018

We're gathered today to celebrate and give thanks for the life of Mr. Eeron Terrill Johnson. He was born on February 7, 1971 in Lexington, South Carolina and was the youngest child born to Willie and Vermella Smith Tillman. Eeron entered God's eternal Kingdom on Wednesday, November 14, 2018.

"EJ", as he was known by friends and "Tubby", as he was known by family, graduated with the class of 1990 from Brookland Cayce High School. He attended Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church in Lexington, SC and had a passion for music that he made everybody understand. EJ enjoyed being a DJ and spending time with family. Eeron never met a stranger and to know him was to love him. He never burdened others with the obstacles that he faced but, pushed through daily as a great mentor to his family and friends. Eeron was employed by Carolina Wings and Rib House for twenty three years. He was a funny guy who also enjoyed cooking and watching his favorite NFL team the Carolina Panthers play football. Some of his favorite sayings were, "what's up fat head", "you doing too much" and "do your part and problems will be solved".

Mr. Johnson was preceded in death by his paternal grandparents, Walter and Dorothy Tillman, Sr. and his maternal grandparents, Alonzo and Victoria Smith.

Left to cherish precious memories are: his parents; a loving fiancé of the home, Adraia West; three loving children, Briana (Johnathan) Dansby, Da'Eeron R. Johnson and Tahj M. Johnson; two grandchildren, Harmony Murph and Jonathan Dansby, Jr.; a brother, Thirl (Tessie) Johnson; three step-children, Keyonna, Dominique, and Deion Richardson, of the home and a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins, other loving and devoted relatives and friends.

“ Eeron “Toby” grew up together. I remember when Eeron, Philip, and Hookie use to hang out at my Grandmother’s all day. As kids we’d play ball and monopoly. The last time I saw Eeron was in church we waved at each other and smiled. Take your rest my childhood friend..
