

Elizabeth Tidwell Samuel

August 18, 1929 - January 14, 2017

Ms. Elizabeth Tidwell Samuel was born in Blythewood, South Carolina on May 9, 1930. She was a daughter of the late Deacon James and Carrie Blocker Tidwell. Her final life chapter was written and she was summoned to Heaven on January 14, 2017 in Columbia, South Carolina.

Sister Elizabeth Samuel joined Little Zion Baptist Church at an early age where she served faithfully as a Deaconess and member of the Senior Gospel Choir and Missionary Society. She was educated in the public schools of Richland County and became a loving wife, mother, grandmother and great grandmother. She loved church and always told the Lord “thank you” . As a mother, she was instrumental in teaching her daughter how to be a virtuous wife. “Libba”, as she was affectionately known by her son-in-law, enjoyed cooking and her specialty was homemade dressing and grits. Some of her favorite foods to eat was fried chicken and okra.

Ms. Samuel married the late Deacon James Samuel, Sr. who she loved to wait on hand and foot. Her parents and a daughter, Elaine S. Bright, also preceded her in death.

Left to cherish precious memories are: a daughter, Carolyn (Pastor Robert) Entzminger; four sons, Minister James (Joyce) Samuel, Jr., Douglas (Delois), Frankie (Sarita) and Ray (Vanessa) Samuel all of Blythewood, South Carolina; a brother David (Birtha) Sightley; two sisters, Dorothy Brannon and Lillie Mae Davis both of Columbia, South Carolina; eleven grandchildren; twenty-five great grandchildren; one great great grandchild; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other loving relatives and friends.
