

Emil Amos Ingram

April 30, 1982 - October 28, 2017

Emil Amos Ingram was born on April 30, 1982 in Canton, Ohio. He was the beloved son of Mrs. Georgeann I. Robinson and the late Donald Ingram. After a courageous battle with health issues, Emil was called Home to be with the Lord on Saturday, October 28, 2017 at Palmetto Health Richland in Columbia, South Carolina.

“Baby”, as he was affectionately known by his mother, was educated in the public schools of Richland County where he graduated as an honor student from Eau Claire High School. He was employed with the Broad River Correctional Center for twelve years. Following, he worked as an officer with G.O. Security.

Brother Ingram joined the Zion Chapel Baptist Church No. 1 and was baptized by the late Reverend Dr. Andrew J. Chishom. Emil was a loving and caring young man. He excelled in every project he pursued. His kind and loving spirit will forever live in the hearts of those he knew.

Left to cherish precious memories are: his mother; fiancé, Jessica Marie Harding; a daughter, Genesis Harding; a son, Isaiah Ingram; a devoted uncle, Kenneth A. Robinson; special cousin, like a sister, Aishia Robinson and a host of uncles, aunts, cousins, other loving relatives and friends.

“ We met my sophomore year in high school and were inseparable since. I think about you often. You taught me how to drive. I remember when you worked at SCDC and we talked all night about nonsense. It hurts that you're gone but you put up a good fight and I'm proud to have ever called you my best friend. I love you. I miss you.

“ I remember when we met at project goal. I drew 4 them & u wrote articles. We were n high school at Eau Claire. I use 2 joke with u & say damn nigga u young...: I remember coming up 2 Sonics when u worked u use 2 always hook me up. Although I never asked u 2. U always was a gr8 friend 2 me. U kept it real with me. Never sugar coated anything. I remember u reeling me after I had my kids. U was their other dad. We use 2 chill have fun it never was a dull moment with u. U kept me laughing. We shared some tears something of happiness & sadness. I just loved u as a brother & best male friend. God I miss u buddy.... rip gone but not forgotten

“ Man I'm Hurt at the fact my brother is gone before I even met him . I talked to you once telling you how I'm almost 18 and going to be saving up for a car to come meet you for the first and the rest of our brother and sisters I never had the chance to meet . I'm really upset that chance was taken from me right before I got it I'm hurt that someone else in our family is gone I love you man rest up

“ I am still in shock from the thought of you not being here on earth with us any longer. From the first time that I met you, I loved you. I have always referred to you as my son because that's what you felt like to me. I enjoyed all the times that you came by the house and asked, "Ma, what's in the refrigerator?" You were mischievous like most young boys trying to find your way in the world. Once you did find your way, it was no stopping you at all. I am so honored to have had the pleasure of watching you grow up to become the man that you were. You not only were a great man but, you were a very loving man and you were a doting father. The job that God put you on earth to do has been done and I know He has said to you, "Well done my son". The world has lost a very loving person but, Heaven has gained another precious angel. We all know that you are in a better place but, I wish that better place was still here on earth with all the people that love you. I love you Emil Amos Ingram and I will never forget you. My thoughts, heart and prayers go out to your family in this trying time.

“ My memories of Emil were from Eau Claire High School. We were in ROTC together and I remember we took Biology class and we talked about music all the time. He put me on to some artists back in the day like, Gang Starr and Wu Tang. I remember we went to the ROTC picnic and he had all of us laughing. Great person to be around and has definitely earned his way into all our hearts back at EC. Much love bruh and you will be missed by lots. RIP and prayers to your family.

“ Man it's so hard to believe that all of this is real. We've been through so much together and I honestly felt that we had so much more to go through. I've been trying to keep myself busy these past few days so that I didn't have to deal with it but that's getting harder as time continues on. The world has truly lost a very good person. I know you are in a better place but I still wish you was here. I will make sure that everyone never forgets you. I love you lil bro!
