“ To God be the glory in all we do. I am glad I would tell Freddie " I love you" while he was here with us. He was truly a brother in-law always willing to help. During the time I really needed a mechanic, he was there to fix what was broken. He has now gone to be with Trish. I can here them saying "Essie" look at us now. Trish wearing that beautiful smile and Freddie saying yea yea that's right. my name was sister to Trish and sister in-law to Freddie. I really think he forgot my name. The both of them the were there for me and my children. He was their Uncle Freddie. Playing and jiving was their thing but, if he was serious, you would know. He would say, "alright listen". You knew it was about to be on. Rest easy brother in-law. You and Trish are at peace now. Much love you guys. Sharing tears of memories, I lit a yellow candle as I remember the love you guys shared with each other and my family. Fred, Kisha, Angie, Kameron, Quinton, and Zoe ,Auntie Essie love you.

Mr Freddie was a kind hearted man, I have Been his neighbor for over 20yrs, He wasdefinitely the Neighbor That, Did Not Put Off the Things For Tomorrow, That He Could Do, For Someone That Day 🙏🙏🙏 Always Asking my Son Byron and myself are we ok,

Telling us what he Cooked and Inviting us to Share A Meal with him. Glory to God!!!!

Over the pandemic I did not see him a lot But I kept Him Always In My Prayers .

So disturb in my Spirit to know of His Passing , But my Family will Keep His Family In Our Prayers, Beautiful Neighbor I meet in 20yrs ago
