George Lee Molden, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Onix Molden, Sr., on the 29th day of March, 1938 in Rockdale, Texas, Milan County. He departed this earthly life on February 10, 2021, at Aiken Regional Medical Center.

George attended Aycock public school from K – 12, graduating in 1957. George was a member of New Hope Baptist Church in Rockdale, Texas. He was affectionately known as a little neighborhood preacher, standing on apple boxes under the big tree in his backyard. After graduating high school George worked odd jobs, his most memorable job was being a movie projectionist at the Madison Theater, downtown Rockdale, Texas before joining the honorable United States Air force. During his 20 years of military service George served in Wakkani Air Station in Wakkani, Japan, Misawa AB in Misawa, Japan, Eglin AB – Eglin, Florida, Eielson AB, Fairbanks North Star, Alaska and Kelly Field, San Antonio, Texas, and Pope Army Airfield— Pope Field, NC. George acquired an Associate's Degree in Accounting and Business, Bachelors Degree in Christian Education, Master's Degree Theology and Pastoral Counseling and Doctorate of Religion and Jurisprudence.

George enjoyed sports, teaching bible study, traveling, and prison ministry, ministering to family and friends. He never met a stranger, always smiling, singing and telling jokes or blessing everyone he met with kind words of encouragements to brighten their day.

His favorite scripture was, Romans 12:1 and 2. George shared God's word at Saint Paul Holiness Church, Jesus Movement Church, Holy Bible Baptist Church and God's Word Outreach Ministry, all located in Columbia, S.C. George was awarded a Faithful Service Award for volunteering at Central Carolina Health & Rehabilitation Center, Columbia, SC in 1998.

George was preceded in death by his brothers, Onix Molden Jr., Desevella Molden and James W. Molden.

He is survived by: his wife, Janice Juanita, of twenty-five years; his children, Shania B., Trinity A., Braylen A. all of Columbia, SC, Tony (Michelle) Molden, Dayton, Ohio, Valarie Molden, Dayton, Ohio; Pamela (Charles) Collins, Columbus, Ohio; Anita Carol Jackson, Dayton, Ohio, Cassandra (Warren) Glover, Columbia, SC; his sisters, Veda Tindle, and Birdie Hemphill both of Katy, TX, Lovie Edwards of Baltimore, MD and Molly (Lewis) Perry of Fayetteville, NC; sisters-in-law, Agnes Molden, Austin, TX and Mary L.E. (Larry) Davis, Columbia, SC, Loretta (Tommy) Nixon, of Eastover, SC; brothers-in-law, Garland T. Robinson and Elijah (Brenda) Robinson, both of Columbia, SC, Albert (Wilhelmina) Wallace, of Eastover, SC and Julius Wallace of Jamaica, NY.; he adored all of his grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews and spiritual family and friends.

Please leave the Molden family your condolences and prayers.

The Molden family, acknowledges with grateful appreciation, all of your kind expressions of love and sympathy.

Thank you for helping us care for our families.

“ Aunt Juanita,

Uncle George was there for me when my dad passed. He held my hand, and you both walked with me. He gave me words of truth and comfort, and I will always hold that near to my heart.

Remember the time you and Uncle George met us in North Carolina. My then, usually shy, four year old daughter climbed into the backseat of her new found great uncle and great aunt's car and was ready to go home with them. My husband and I so enjoyed spending time with you two.

I know Uncle George is healed, and he is free. He is speaking to Jesus and singing His praises. We will pray for God's unending peace and love over you.

Love,

Jacqui, Brad and Bridgitte Wright

“ My Sister Juanita, Condolences and prayers of comfort, love and peace are being made on behalf of Molly Molden Perry and Family. I remember George as a brother, friend, and Spiritual Adviser who endured the test of time. We thank God for such a long family relationship. We will always remember his love for family and friends. Our hearts are saddened by his death but we rejoice because in life we were family. May all of us be comforted by the Holy Spirit of our fond memories of George and his family.

With Love,

Lewis and Molly Perry

“ We the Ballard and Belton families wish to express our love and care with you during this time of bereavement. We share in your grief and loss of such a wonderful man of God. Elder Molden (Brother George) as we so affectionally called him for many years was special to our family. While he may be absent here on earth, I'm sure he singing praises and hallelujah's all around heavens golden streets. To sister Molden; my mom Betty sends you her sincere condolences. Our prayer is that God will comfort and keep you in the days ahead.

With Love,

Betty Ballard

“ Dr. Juanita Molden, I offer my sincere condolences to you and your family during this difficult season. I pray that Gods caring and comforting presence will be bestowed upon you and help ease the pain of your loss.

I will always remember meeting you and Bishop years ago in Charlotte, NC. We remained friends throughout the years. Bishop was always the same sincere man of GOD, preaching and bringing others to CHRIST and The LORD has blessed him from labor to reward. May he rest in peace. Thanks to you both for your prayers and support during the lost of my husband Pastor Charles Murphy.
