Glentis D. Wyre II, 47, of Philadelphia, PA, affectionately known as Glen, “G”, and “Hubby”, departed this earthly life on Tuesday, September 1, 2020 in Columbia, SC. He was born on July 10, 1973 in Bronx, New York to Mr. Glentis Denfield Wyre, Sr. and the late Mrs. Mavis Cloretta Mike Wyre.

Glen’s parents and family came to the states from Antigua and Barbuda and their culture remained prevalent in the household - reflecting how Glen and his six siblings were reared. Glen comes from a large tight-knit family.

Glen grew up in Bronx, NY and at an early age he attended Sabbath school, and was an active member in services at City Tabernacle Seventh Day Adventist Church where he was baptized at fourteen years old. He was also a student at Mount Saint Michael Academy (an all boys college prep school). Glen furthered his education in Philadelphia, PA at Temple University and earned his Bachelor’s Degree in Accounting. He was gainfully employed after college at a human services agency in the Finance Department before being promoted as the Purchasing & Requisitions Coordinator, IT Specialist, and the Maintenance and Facilities Supervisor. It was there that he met his wife, Renée Jenkins.

Glentis was a witty, even-keeled, genial, well-rounded, family oriented man who was relentless when it came to supporting and protecting his family. He had a love for all sports, mainly New York teams, being a provider and enjoying his hobbies and life.

Left in grief to cherish precious memories are: his wife; a daughter, Alanna; his father, Glentis D. Wyre, Sr.; his siblings: two sisters, Heather and Tracy of London, a brother, Sherwin of Antigua and two brothers and a sister, Winston and Dwayne and Renee of the United States. Additional lamenting family are: his dearest aunts, uncles, two nieces; a grand niece and a nephew, cousins, life-long friends, in-laws, and numerous former co-workers and associates that grew to love him.

Should you wish to send flowers or a memorial gift, you can do so by visiting our website or shopping on your own.

The Wyre family, acknowledges with grateful appreciation, all of your kind expressions of love and sympathy.

Thank you for helping us care for our families. A. A. Dicks, Sr. and Staff.

“ I was fortunate to meet Glen at Temple University. Glen was brother of ‘my brother’, Dwayne, so it was easy to like him as the two were so close. Glen, I pray your suffering has ended and heaven embraces you with open arms. You will be missed by all that were lucky enough to know you here on earth,
Beverly

“ I met Glen almost 30 years ago on the first day of school at Temple University. We lived on the same floor and eventually became roommates in the Johnson/Hardwick dorms. As a freshman, I remember being excited about leaving home and ready to engage in all the partying college had to offer. I think for the most part, all of us on that floor had the same idea. However, Glen was different, he was always about his business and could be relied upon as the voice of reason. Glen did have his share of fun, but he knew how to strike an incredible balance in life. He would often give me advice about overdoing things but of course I ignored him to my own detriment. I always wondered how someone at such a young age was so mature and focused, yet he was cool to be around. Now that I'm a parent of 3 boys and one that just started college, I realized it was the invaluable parenting he received at home. He was a once in a lifetime friend that you could count on for encouragement, guidance and understanding. I will greatly miss him and pray that God comforts his family and friends during this difficult time.

“ Glen

It's been years since we have spoken. However we kept tabs on each other. You were a quiet yet strong friend who made things happen. We always had great times with the crew at Temple. The pain is over now. You are in God's hands. Spread those wings as wide as you can. Peace and love.

I had the extreme privilege to meet Glen and work with him for many years at Intercultural. He was always willing and able to help with whatever was needed to keep a project moving forward. A true professional and all around nice man. My sincerest sympathies to his entire family and most of all Renee. So very sorry for your loss and hope the memories help.
