

Henry Herbert Harmon Jr.

February 26, 1958 - June 27, 2018

Mr. Henry Herbert Harmon, Jr., entered this life on February 26, 1959 to the late Henry Herbert and Marie Shell Harmon, Sr. He was born in Kings County, Brooklyn, New York.

Henry was educated in Richland School District One and completed his studies at Eau Claire High School. He went on to become an artist and saxophonist. Later in life, he joined his father's business, Harmon Plumbing and was an expert in customer service. Henry was a people's person who was well liked and known. As a master plumber he prevented the community from being charged expensive plumbing fees.

When Mr. Harmon's health declined, he was confined to a nursing home where God saw fit to call him Home Wednesday, June 27, 2018.

He was preceded in death by his parents and a sister, Sharon Harmon.

Left to cherish precious memories are: his sister, Carolyn Harmon Feisal of Washington, DC; a companion, Norma Jean Brown; nieces, nephews, cousins, other loving relatives and special friends who will miss him dearly.
