Apostle Issac Dash, was born on February 2, 1948 in Orangeburg, South Carolina to the late George and Wilhelmina Dash. He departed this life on Saturday, January 16, 2021.

He was called to lead as Pastor of the Holy Mission Faith Holiness Church, in 1992, in Orangeburg, SC. The church relocated to its current location, 131 Duke Avenue, in Columbia, South Carolina. Apostle Dash served as the Presiding Elder of the Holy Gospel Tabernacle, Inc.

Apostle Dash was employed by Hardaway Concrete, and retired in 2011.

He enjoyed fishing, traveling to Florida for family vacations, laughing, and having fun with his family and friends.

Apostle Dash was joined in holy matrimony to Minnie Lee Samuel in April 1965.

He was a devoted husband and father. He enjoyed serving the Lord and spreading the Gospel of Jesus Christ. His last mission was to see his family saved.

Apostle Dash leaves to cherish his precious memories: his wife, Minnie Lee Dash; his daughter, Tammy (Tommy) Williams; two sons, Eric (Tia) Dash and Larry (Winter) Dash; nine grandchildren, Derrick, Mia, Myra, Erika, Christopher, Elijah, and Davon Dash, Edrick Cherry, and Bryan Porter; five sisters, Juanita (Matthew) Taylor, Catherine Osborne, Martha Jennings, Mary Lou Mosley, and Eartha Dash; all of Columbia, South Carolina; eight sisters-in-law; four brothers-in-law; and a host of nieces, nephews, and other loving relatives and friends.

Please leave the Dash family your condolences and prayers.

The Dash family, acknowledges with grateful appreciation, all of your kind expressions of love and sympathy.

Thank you for helping us care for our families.

A. A. Dicks, Sr. and Staff.

“ To my Dash family God don't make no mistakes . My uncle Apostle Isaac Dash had an assignment or task that he had to complete. He has finished his course and God came and took him home. I can hear Elder Bruce Taylor singing that song Will you be ready when Jesus comes. Pastor Dash was ready and if we want to see Pastor Dash again we have to do the same thing that he did. Get our house in order because when God calls our name it will be to late to get ready we got to be ready. We love you Uncle Sam but God loved you Bless. Sleep on and take your rest.
