

Mr. James C. Greenlee, III

August 23, 1965 - April 23, 2016

James was born August 23, 1965 on Fort Jackson Army Base in Columbia, South Carolina to Juliette Davis Greenlee and the late James C. Greenlee, Jr. He departed this life April 23, 2016. Mr. Greenlee was a 1983 honor graduate of Eau Claire High School. He attended Rice University in Houston, Texas and the University of South Carolina. Mr. Greenlee was a state employee for twenty-three years, celebrating twenty years in the University of South Carolina library system in April of this year.

An extremely quiet and gentle spirit, James was an avid collector of memorabilia. He donated generously to the State and public libraries and belonged to several University of South Carolina and local organizations.

James was preceded in death by his father, James C. Greenlee, Jr. and a niece, Alyssa J. Brown.

Left to cherish loving memories are: his mother, Juliette D. Greenlee; his two sisters, Felicia (John) Brown and Michelle Greenlee Harris; two nephews, Anthony and Ayden Brown and a niece, Melanie J. Harris all of Columbia, SC and a host of other loving relatives and friends.

In lieu of flowers, the family is requesting donations be made to Columbia Hope In Christ Ministries, Inc. for the J.C. Greenlee Memorial Fund. Tax deductible donations will benefit diabetes prevention outreach efforts through the National Diabetes Prevention Program held at the church and provide a scholarship for a deserving student of the Columbia Hands of Hope Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA) Program.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. James was my friend at Rice University. May God grant you peace and strength as you remember him. James blessed us all with his quiet strength and his kindness. He was in my freshman group at Rice, and we shared a connection to the South, as both my parents were from Georgia. I have thought of him often, and I mourn his loss.
Peace to you,
Cati Moses Dobson
