“ Jimmy as I called him, is a beloved cousin. Although, adulthood took us down different life paths, I remember our childhood togetherness. We had fun! Playing and teasing our other cousins and siblings were our full time job when I visited Granddaddy and Grandma Tidwell. I thank the Lord for our time together in my childhood season. Jimmy is a fun loving, gentle, and kind soul. May our Lord welcome with him into eternity with open arms for a life well lived always putting God first.
May your family overflow with peace and joy as they cherish the memories of your love and the best you gave them in life.
Love you Cuz,
Always,
