Baby Girl Jamila Rose Martin was conceived by LaTasha Andrienne Martin and DeShaun J. Stroman. However, the Most High God decided to come for His Rose on July 31, 2020 to place her in His Heavenly Garden.

Her mother reflects on how baby Jamila Rose had her craving and eating mashed potatoes and sub sandwiches all the time. She stated that she could already tell that her baby was going to have her way. Jamila Rose would hide from ultrasound pictures, move aggressively when touched and become very active when hungry. She was a "juicy" baby.

Left to cherish precious memories are: her loving parents, five sisters, two brothers; her maternal grandparents, Kenneth Martin, Sr. and Dianne (Malcolm) Tyner; paternal grandmother, Patricia Stroman; three aunts, eight uncles and a host of cousins, other loving relatives and friends.

Please leave the family your condolences and prayers.

The Martin family, acknowledges with grateful appreciation, all of your kind expressions of love and sympathy.

Thank you for helping us care for our families. A. A. Dicks, Sr. and Staff.
