Jimmy Ray and I started first grade at Sally Gillentine Elementary school in Hollis, Oklahoma in 1958-1959 school year. Ms. Vi or Mr. Jim would give Jimmy Ray 50 cent each day to buy candy while the other parents kids received 5 cents or 10 cents to spend on candy each day. Jimmy Ray would have a whole sack of soar ball, grape or red hot ball gum and never never shared with the rest of us. If you asked him for some, he just laughed at you. Jimmy was a great friend. I was in his and Dorothy's wedding in 1970 as her maid of honor. Both were great friends and Jimmy Ray and I graduated from Hollis High School in 1971 and he went to the Army and I went to Draughon's School of business in Wichita Falls, Texas. Rest in peace Jimmy Ray. Almatene Byrd, OKC, OK
