“ Johnson was such a cool dude to me. As a young child I use to follow him around when we visited him and his sweet mom. He would call me his little princess. No matter how old I was he would see me and say hey my princess. He will be truly missed. Prayers for the family.

Mr. Hammond was such a special friend to me. We worked together for years. After he retired he visited me every Wednesday and brought me The Free Times. We would chat about his family and my family and anything and everything. He will truly be missed. - Cheryl Fitts

A few days before he died , I read to Johnson what my mother had written in my baby book that his mother, my grand Aunt ,had sent when I was born. I will miss his humor, his pure genius about any subject, including anything I wanted to know about family history, what he had to say about current news, etc. In my opinion, he had a sharp mind about any and everything! Love you, and will miss you. Dorothy Jo
