A stranger he never meta son, a brother, a father, a friend, but most of all a child of God that came to shine some of God's light on all of us in his own way. In our living we all have a ministry. You may not stand in a pulpit nor wear a robe, but we have a purpose within us that is a gift from God.

Jovon "Von" Johnson, was born in Columbia, SC, on December 10, 1975 to Marilyn Golston and the late, Nathan Vandyke Johnson. On March 5, 2021, after a brief illness, Jovon L. Johnson packed up his earthly bags and moved to 100 God's Will Avenue. Oh how sweet to reside where Jesus is.

At an early age he moved to New York City, where he enjoyed many years of being a New Yorker. He was employed as a professional mover and talked vividly of his experience of being a top notch moving expert. Throughout his travels, between New York and Columbia, he finally settled as a resident in Columbia, SC. He worked various jobs. Von's love for people always led him to helping those around him. He loved his family and enjoyed times with his uncles, aunts and cousins.

Jovon was preceded in death by his father, Nathan and his maternal and paternal grandparents.

Left to cherish his memories are: his mother, Marilyn Golston of Columbia, SC; his children, Vonija Nuri, Niahemah Nuri, Jonvon Smith, all of New York City, Tealrosa Smith, of Columbia, SC and Jaivion Trevon Chestnut, of Myrtle Beach, SC; his siblings; Kimbi Golston, Anthonio "Nino" Golston, Safwand Johnson, and Sevastian "Davy" Golston, all of Columbia, SC; two grandchildren, Kayden and K'ylinn, of Columbia, SC; and a host of nieces, nephews, Aunts, Uncles, and cousins.

Please leave the Johnson family your condolences and prayers.

The Johnson family, acknowledges with grateful appreciation, all of your kind expressions of love and sympathy.

Thank you for helping us care for our families.

A. A. Dicks, Sr. and Staff.

“ I saw happy heavenly birthday on FB Dec 10. I thought of when I just had my daughter and you drove me and Tara to Tricia Grappie's funeral. On our way back you are that chicken breast with int hand and drove with them other. I was so grateful that you drove there and back. Last to me we chatted was 2017. Thanks for being a great friend and being "country" Missing you! Rest easy.

“ I'm going to miss you cousin. It's been years since I've seen you when you lived in New York but I will never ever forget your smile, your warmth, and your good nature. Thank you for watching after my Dad in Columbia - you are more than just a nephew to him, you are his friend. Von you have earned your rest. May we all be so blessed to be in the presence of Jesus. God bless Ms. Marilyn and the family, you are in our prayers.
