

Elder Juan P. Johnson

April 28, 1965 - October 5, 2017

Elder Juan Pierre Johnson, the son of Jacqueline Johnson Ferguson and the grandson of the late Deacon Willie B. and Benzena Miller Johnson, was born April 28, 1965 and died October 5, 2017, at Palmetto Health Richland in Columbia, South Carolina, after an extended illness.

Elder Juan Johnson attended the public schools of Richland County and was a graduate of Eau Claire High School in Columbia. Prior to his illness, he was employed first with Schneider Electric Company and then with Shaw Industries. He was also a certified truck driver.

He was a faithful member of Bible Way Church of Atlas Road. On January 14, 2005, he was ordained and recognized as an elder of the Gospel at Bible Way Church, according to Mark 16:15-18. He participated with the Men's Ministry, Baptismal Ministry and he was a member of Care Group 5. He took his ministry outside the walls as a motivational speaker to inspire others. He enjoyed writing in his journal and spending quality time with his children.

Elder Johnson leaves to cherish his memories, his wife, Karen Starr Johnson; his sons, Brandon Pierre Johnson of Charlotte, NC, and Brandon Starr of Columbia, SC; and his daughters, Jaydon Johnson and Jordan Starr of Columbia, SC; his mother, Jacqueline Johnson Ferguson, of Columbia, SC; his sister, Shaunda F. Jones, of Columbia, SC; three grandchildren, Trinity, Kayla and collie; two aunts, Benzena Wolfe and Gloria Johnson, of Columbia, SC; one uncle, Robert Scott, of Thomson, GA; two grand aunts, Magnolia Whettstone, of Washington, D.C. and Thelma D. Thomas, of Charleston, SC.

One great-grand aunt, Gladys Belin, of Dillon, SC. A special cousin, Andrew (Lynn) Johnson, of Columbia, SC; his mother-in-law, Betty Starr, of Ward, SC; his sister-in-law, Melissa Starr; and a host of many other aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, friends, family and church members.
