

Kay Greenway Bruce

March 31, 1945 - October 4, 2013

IRMO, SC – Kay Greenway Bruce, 68, of Irmo, South Carolina, was called home to be with the Lord on October 4, 2013, in her home surrounded by her family.

Born March 31, 1945 to James and Ezra Greenway, Kay was preceded in death by her sister, Linda Faye Greenway, and her parents, James and Ezra Greenway. She was survived by her two sons James Stephen Bruce and Roger Michael Bruce, their wives, Stacey Lea Bruce and Jenessa Michelle Bruce, and her two grandchildren, DeLaney Lynn Bruce and James Stephen Bruce, Jr.

Kay was born in Dublin, Georgia and grew up in Savannah, Georgia. She spent her working years at Johnson-Edgefield-Trenton Middle School in Edgefield and Leaphart Elementary School in Irmo where she passionately imparted her love of music to countless children. Kay loved life, her family and friends, traveling, her church and choir, and most of all her Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Although we already miss her terribly, we know she is happier than ever now that she is in the presence of the Author and Finisher of her Faith. Kay trusted the Lord every step of the way and the light and joy of her life will continue to shine in the testimony she leaves behind with her family and friends.

A memorial service to celebrate her life will be held at 10:00am Monday, October 7th at First 99Baptist Church, of Columbia.

In lieu of flowers, please send donations to First Baptist Church Columbia, SC in honor of her Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. These services have been entrusted to A. A. Dicks Funeral Home-Sullivan Chapel

“ I taught at JET Middle School with Kay. She was a dear friend. We talked, laughed, and cried together. She was dedicated to her choir and music. She always looked at the world through rose- colored-glasses. I will miss her dearly! Judy Morris

I met Ms. Kay through her son Roger (Mike) Bruce, when he was stationed in Georgia. She was a lovely lady. I loved talking with her. My favorite memory of her has to be when we all attended Mike and Jenessa's wedding. She laughed and talked with us. She was so happy to see Mike find happiness. She loved her sons so much. Nothing compared to the love she had for Our Lord and Savior! Rest In Peace Ms. Bruce. Good and faithful servant.
