Lester C Kearse was born in Saluda South Carolina. Son of Trannie Pickett-Lewis and Albert Lewis. He was born into a large family with ten brothers and sisters. L. C. Kearse passed away after a brave battle with cancer.

L. C. enjoyed life, family members and many friends. He was always there to brighten the lives of others. L. C. will be missed but not forgotten.

He left South Carolina to seek work and opportunities in Detroit where he started to form another group of family and friends.

He took pride in all that he did from being a truck driver for the Teamsters and working for Claussen Concrete Company while rearing his family of sons, daughters and grandchildren. Once he retired he returned to South Carolina to reunite with his family.

He was preceded in death by his son Lester C. Johnson.

He is survived by his sister Viola Rudd. His list of family and friends is big and spreads throughout this world but the lives he touched and his presence will forever be felt and missed.

Please leave the Kearse family your condolences and prayers.

The Kearse family, acknowledges with grateful appreciation, all of your kind expressions of love and sympathy.

“ I am LC's nephew. My mother and he spoke quite often and I was lucky enough to be able to take her to visit him a couple of years ago. He was very warm and inviting. It was nice to see my mother and him catch up on events. He was very good at making us laugh as they shared fond memories. I'm glad they had that time together.
RIP

“ I was the niece from NYC he called “Cuz” Barbara Byrd. Me and Uncle LC were very close. We shared stories about my father, his brother Louis Kearsse. I went to visit him while he lived in the “Motor City” Detroit and when he retired to Columbia SC. I will surely miss our weekly phone calls. It was an honor and a privilege to love him. RIP
