Ms. LaTonya Harrison-Greyer, was born in Camden, South Carolina at the Kershaw Memorial Hospital on August 16, 1975. She was the beloved daughter of Larry L. and Bernice Mitchell Harrison. LaTonya departed her earthly life after an extended illness on Saturday, November 23, 2019 at the MUSC Hospital in Florence, South Carolina.

“Lil’ Bit”, as she was affectionately known, attended Spring Valley High School and completed her last year at City Year Columbia with the Class of 1995. She furthered her studies at South University, 1997, Allied Business School, 2007, Fort Clark Baptist Biblical Theological Seminary, 2008 and James Dussault Seminary, 2014. She was a faithful member of New Ebenezer Baptist Church in Florence, SC until her health declined. LaTonya sang on the choir and served as a Missionary feeding the hungry and assisting the homeless. She loved her family, good movies, food and cooking her favorite dish, chicken bog. Lil' Bit left this world with a praise on her lips; singing her favorite hymns.

Left to cherish precious memories are: her mother, Bernice M. Harrison of Columbia, SC; father, Larry L. Harrison of Ridgeway, SC; a sister, Angela Harrison (Cohen) Cooke of Irmo, SC; two brothers, Pastor Mario Harrison of Columbia, SC and Jarvis Carter of Camden, SC; nephews, Avery and Brandon Cooke of Irmo, SC and Demario, Dashanna, Simon, Jr. and Jacob Danzy all of Winston Salem, NC, Omarion Harrison of Florence, SC and Zillah Dixon of Elgin, SC and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, other loving relatives and friends.

Please leave the family your condolences and prayers.

The Greyer family, acknowledges with grateful appreciation, all of your kind expressions of love and sympathy.

Thank you for helping us care for our families. A. A. Dicks, Sr. and Staff.
