

Lee Otis Cannon, Jr.

March 5, 1949 - September 29, 2018

Mr. Lee Otis Cannon, Jr., was born March 5, 1949 in Florence, South Carolina to the late Lee Otis Cannon, Sr. and Aretha Hickson.

“Sonny”, as he was affectionately known, served a brief moment in the United States Army. Upon being honorably discharged, he became employed at the Midas Muffler where he worked for more than twenty-five years. Sonny never met a stranger and would help anyone with the mechanical needs of their car. When he wasn’t working on cars, he could be found enjoying his favorite past times of hunting and fishing.

Until his health began to fail, although he was not a member, he worshipped at Gunter’s Chapel Baptist Church.

Sonny was preceded in death by his parents and his beloved son, Lee Otis Cannon, III.

Left to cherish precious memories are: his daughter, Audrey (Paul) Cannon-Goodwin; a sister, Mary Beth “Maybelle” Tyler; a brother, Robert Earle “Nookie” Cannon; three grandsons, Larondre, Rodrick and Paul Goodwin, Jr.; six great grandchildren; a special friend, Carol Pugh; a niece and caretaker, Angelia Tyler and a host of other loving relatives and friends who will miss him dearly.
