He was a beloved son of Charlie Mae Foust and the late Leroy Foust; who reared him in a Christian home along with the Pine Grove African Methodist Episcopal Church. Leroy departed this life and entered into eternal rest on Saturday, February 8, 2014. "Foot", as he was affectionately known by his family and friends, was educated in the public schools of Lexington-Richland District Five He graduated from Irmo High School and was employed as a Certified Tire & Lube Technician at Walmart, Incorporated. However, Foot was a "jack of all trades". He would try fixing or assisting with any job to include maintenance, construction, yard work, etcetera... To know Leroy "Foot" was to love him. He was a devoted man who loved fellowshiping with friends and spending quality time with his children. His wife remembers "My Leroy" as the man who help bring her "balance" and "help" her through life. Leroy loved his children and shared his love for fishing, hunting, cooking and assisting others with them. His loving and kind spirit will continue to live in the hearts of all who knew him. Mr. Foust was preceded in death by his father and brothers Albert and Haskel Foust. He leaves to cherish precious memories his devoted and loving wife, Inger Taylor-Foust; daughters, Santana Starks, Precious and Shantanna Taylor; son, Quincy Foust; mother, Charlie Mae Foust; sisters, Annie (Samuel) Roberts, Cassandra Pickett and Laura (George) Reeder; grandchildren, Santasia and Jala Anderson; aunt, Louise Wright; uncles, Eugene (Mary), Matthew (Georgella) and Bernard (Mittie) Foust; sisters-in-law, Cynthia, Jacqueline and Briggette Taylor, Sonia (Roderick) Green and Cathy Foust; brother-in-law, Paris and Franklin (Carol) Taylor; a very special aunt and uncle-in-law, Minnie "Shirley" Grant-English and John (Dorothy) Grant who were more like mothers and fathers-in-law; uncle-in-law, Daniel (Hattie) and Harry Grant; aunts-in-law, Pauline McCormick and Mamie Grant; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends who will dearly miss him.

“ To Inga and the family, we have had a great lost to enter into our lives, but with the love that we all have for one another, we will get through this. God never make mistake and he will never put more on us than we can bear. We will miss the cooking and conversations in the kitchen with you and Leroy. May the love and peace of God surround you in this hour of bereavement. We love you and we will continue to pray for healing while you will never forget the love of your life, we pray that as the days go by, you will find comfort in the love and memories you shared.

Love you much

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Losing our loved ones is very painful. It is comforting to know that God cares about us and that very soon we will no longer have to mourn for loved ones. (Revelation 21:3,4). he has also provided a sure hope that we will be able to see our loved ones alive again. (John 5:28,29). May you have comfort and peace during this difficult time.
