“ My dear cousin and my dearest buddy. I can't explain the feeling that I am feeling right now. I do know that you will truly be missed. I no longer will be able to call you or you calling me. But I know that I can still talk to you in my heart. I know that life wasn't easy for you, but you always kept the faith and you never gave up. You continue to still do what God called you to do even though you were going through your own sickness. You were a perfect example of how we should still give God the praise even when life isn't fair and to never stop believing in God, and know that he's always an on time God! We had some great times together going to church and keeping in touch with one another! I will never forget you my beautiful dearest cousin. You don't have to worry about nothing anymore, because you're now resting in the loving and caring arms of our LORD and SAVIOR JESUS CHRIST. So take your rest virtuous woman of God and we will see you in that great getting up morning!! To her kids, siblings, and families, may God bless, give you all peace, mend and heal y'all broken hearts. Heaven has gained an angel. Gone, but not forgotten. I love you still my beautiful Queen cousin always and forever, Amen. 🙏🙏💔💔☐😭😭
