Mrs. Louise Nash Smith was born on July 21, 1930 in Ridgeville, South Carolina. She was the youngest child born to the late Samuel and Ethel Cummings Nash. On July 31, 2020, Louise quietly departed this earthly life in Columbia, South Carolina.

“Verbatine”, as she was affectionately known by her family, graduated C. A. Johnson High School Class of 1951. She was a good and faithful friend to many. She loved planting flowers and plants in her garden and one of her favorite pastimes was solving crossword puzzles. Her loved ones remember her favorite quote: “manners will carry you where money won’t”.

Mrs. Smith was preceded in death by her husband, the late, Stanley Benjamin Smith; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel and Ethel Nash; eight older siblings, Russell, Erin, Aaron, Alfred, Ralph, Robert and Virginia Nash, Wilma Brady and Cynthia Metze.

Left to cherish precious memories are: two loving children, Luanne E. Anderson and James J. Smith; grandchildren, Quintina L. Smith, Nicholas B., Andre' T. and Malcolm M. Anderson; two great grandchildren, Travis D. and Gage A. Creech; a host of nephews and nieces she adored as her own and other loving relatives and friends.

Please leave the family your condolences and prayers.

The Smith family, acknowledges with grateful appreciation, all of your kind expressions of love and sympathy.

Thank you for helping us care for our families. A. A. Dicks, Sr. and Staff.
