Lucretia Jeter Woodburn was born April 22, 1952, in Columbia, South Carolina, to the late Abraham Jeter and Dorothy D. Glasper. She peacefully entered Heaven's gates on July 8, 2022, at the age of 70, surrounded by her children.

She attended C.A. Johnson High School Class of 1969, Columbia, South Carolina; Lucretia later obtained a Certificate of Health Science in Pre-Health Studies from Midland Technical College, Columbia, South Carolina.

Lucretia was a loving mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, and friend who enjoyed spending time with her family and friends. She had such a big heart. She wouldn't entertain gossip or talking down about others. She always chose to see the good in people; when she couldn't see it, she prayed about it. She loved God with her whole heart and left a legacy of honor, strength, loving others, and a servant's heart; her latter was indeed more significant! She never stopped giving of herself. She often said that she felt it was her turn to give back since she didn't do that in her early years. She was right by the side of every sibling that needed an advocate when their health was challenged, two of them until death. She was the primary caregiver for her mother, Dorothy Glasper, until she stepped into glory last year. Even when she felt her worst, she gave. She gave back until she wasn't physically able. Her children had to plead with her to rest, but she was determined to give and serve others, attending church until she couldn't.

For many years before her passing, she would politely remind everyone not to call between 8 pm and 10 pm, because it was the time she carved out to spend with Jesus. During that time, she would journal out her devotionals using a three-subject notebook. She would keep the journals in her car and, when led by Holy Spirit, give them to people she did not know. She also ordered large quantities of The Daily Bread Devotionals for seniors in nursing home communities. She was an avid reader with an extensive Christian book collection, which she loved. She loved puzzles and hoped to frame her completed work to share with others someday.

Even in her death, she wanted to give to others. She was always hungry/eager to learn. Years ago, she shared with family and friends that she would be donating her body to The University of South Carolina (USC) health sciences program at the time of her passing. She asked her children not to challenge that when the time came. With her passing in Oklahoma, the family was logistically challenged with returning her body to USC. Instead, USC coordinated the donation through The University of Oklahoma (OU). Lucretia will continue to give and help others with their education for a lifetime!

Lucretia was preceded by her father, Abraham Jeter, her mother, Dorothy D. Glasper, and her two brothers, Rayfield and Alexander Jeter.

Lucretia is survived by her children Felix (Ardie) Jeter of Columbia, South Carolina, Autavia (Nikki) Sharp (Reginald) of Tulsa, Oklahoma, and Michael (Duane) Woodburn of Surprise, Arizona; a brother, Pastor Abraham (Chrystal Carr) Jeter, Jr., Pastor of Church of God of Cleveland, Ohio; four sisters, Loraine Booker, Nazerine Preshay Rice both of Columbia, South Carolina, Vivialoria Houston (Joseph) of Charlotte, North Carolina, and Dorothy Angela Profit (Harry) of Virginia Beach, Virginia; three aunts, Josephine D. Smiley, Nazerine D. Morgan and Leola N. Dicks all of Aiken, South Carolina.; a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

“ My beautiful sister, a rare diamond you are. As we were growing up; you were Mother's errand runner; the three little ones escort; and when I ran from Loraine ...the relentless bloodhound. As an adult; you became my friend and confidant. Our family could never put a price on how you cared for Mother, Ray and Alex. I see you as "sister"- GOD knows you as servant and now alas...friend and daughter.

Although the sun rise and sets everyday...this world will never be the same without our LUCRETIA. With our Everlasting Love Viv (Joe, Vince, Jasmine and Their Family)--"Later Gator"

“ It is a small world and it gets even smaller when you make acquaintances and have no idea the connection. Our Springwood Lake Community hosts a December Celebration each year and Mrs. Woodburn would be invited. I knew she looked so familiar but it never clicked that she was Rev Abraham Jeter's sister until now. She was always such a lady. She could've passed for Raifield's twin. May GOD continue to provide the Woodburn and Jeter families with the strength to sustain you during your time of benevolence. She will be sorely missed.

“ To the family of " Woodburn" as we affectionally called her at Blanding House, a Child and Adolescent home for children. She was always smiling, willing to give you a helping hand and daily talked of her children, Nickie, Artie, and baby Wayne. She was a wonderful person to be around daily, very friendly and kind hearted. We will all miss her. Peace and comfort to the family, you are not alone. Resting with God. Emily G Toliver

“ To the family of my little Sister, Lurcretia God Blessed us to love and appreciate each other. I'm missing her dearly. God Blessed us to be Sister that needed each other company. I'm missing the visits, phone calls, the Hong blowing each time she passed the house. Calls that shared how her day went. I'm missing her, more than words can express 😞. To the family you'll not alone on this journey we must travel this journey one day at a time. Step by step with Jesus carrying us. Love always, Jacobs Family, your extra Sister.
