

Mamie Lee Veal

October 5, 1932 - May 18, 2017

Mrs. Mamie Lee Veal, affectionately known as Nanny, of 1216 Muller Avenue, Columbia, SC got her angel wings May 18, 2017 at Providence Hospital Northeast. Mamie was born October 5, 1932 to Allen and Juliane Coleman Johnson, Sr.

She was reared and educated in the schools of Richland County. She joined Zion Chapel Baptist Church #1 at an early age where she served many years as an usher. At the time of her death, she was a member of the Sanctuary Choir of Zion Chapel for many years.

Sister Veal worked for Richland School District One until her retirement.

Mamie was an excellent cook and baker. Her cinnamon buns and peanut butter cookies were everyone's favorites. She loved flowers of any kind and had a giving heart. You could never leave her house without a package. More than anything, she was a woman of faith.

Mamie was preceded in death by her parents; a sister, Bertha Mae Davis; a brother, Deacon Allen Johnson, Jr. and a great great granddaughter, Tane'sha Veal.

Left to cherish precious memories are: three children, Vivian Veal Brasley of Lugoff, SC, Vera (Tommie) Cornelius and Raymond Veal; eight grandchildren, Deitre (Curtis) Hilton, Letesha Bright Livingston, Rodriquez (Mirika) Cornelius, Charles Brasley, Jr., Mario Cornelius, Angela Brasley, Rosalyn Turner and Mataya Cornelius; sixteen great grandchildren; a special friend, Alonso Perry and host of other loving relatives and friends.

“ my vivid memories of Mrs. Veal re still in my mind. I really appreciate her and her family for all the love and friendship that they showed me in my youth. May that same kindness and love be reciprocated to them in their hour of need. May GOD grant them the peace and serenity that they will need in the times to come and encourage them to face and endure the times to come in the future.
