“ Oh my where do I start.....I remember Marvetta as Whitney. She stayed beside my mom and we will see each other through passing. We would speak occasionally but, I knew it was something special about that. When I talked to her mom on the phone I learned that her mom and my mother were cousin somewhere down the line. That was that something about that. She grew into a beautiful young lady. Lena, Troe, and Carlena...she's not gone..she's right there in your heart. She's y'all guardian angel now. She earned her wings. Our condolences from our family to yours.

“ I will never forget that big BEAUTIFUL smile! How it lit up any room! Will always remember you, Carlena, and a friend stopped through for a quick visit a couple of months back...your first time. I remember you asking, "Did you cook?" Then seeing you at the wedding was a blast! We all really enjoyed ourselves to the fullest at the wedding Friday. You were so happy and smiling...yes...that's what I'm going to miss most. So honored to have had someone, my Lil cousin with the big beautiful smile named after me...smile 😊 Smart and talented too! Rest easy Whitley my dear...Love you ❤️💋💋
