“ Mr. Burgess was such a phenomenal man and an overall good person. I spent many a day and night in his and Mrs. Burgess' home when I was a teen. He was like a father to me when I desperately needed one. We had a lot of good times and shared a lot of laughs-I'm sure that's why I was so much skinner back then. I will always treasure those times and Mr. Burgess. Prayers for Mrs. Burgess, Nikki, Quinn, Bobby, Kelly, the grandkids and the entire family.

“ Mr. Burgess was my son Jeremy's grandfather, who along with Dr. Rev. Mrs. Burgess were instrumental in raising him to be the finest young man he is today. I thank all of them so much. He will be missed. R.I.P. Mr. B. 🕊️🙏😞💜 My deepest condolences to the Burgess family.

A poem for Dr. Rev. Mrs. Burgess, Quinn, Nikki, Kelly and Jeremy.

The Return by Alora M. Night.

*At a time of sorrow, it is hard to believe
That the sun will once again shine.
That's when it seems you do nothing but grieve,
With all joy being left far behind.*

*Still, life has a way of starting anew,
A gradual moving away
From heartaches that linger, as heartaches will do,
If you will allow them to stay.*

*As spring returns to the Earth every year,
Bringing all of its beauty in view,
So merciful time will heal everything,
Bringing peace of mind back to you.*

*Know in your heart that love never dies,
No matter whatever befalls.
The only ones who never have tears in their eyes
Are those who loved no one at all.*

*The greater the love, the greater the loss.
Still, it's love that makes life worth living.
Few are the ones who will not bear the cost
To have shared in the joy of its giving.*

“ My prayers and condolences to the Deacon McArthur Burgess family. A family that has been dear to my heart since they entered the doors of Ridgewood Missionary Baptist Church. The face of Deacon Burgess will be missed among the Sunday School, Vacation Bible School, and all of the other church functions where he helped so diligently with preparing meals. Rev. Lillian Burgess, Quin, and Niki, I love you from the bottom of my heart, and may God's comfort and strength be with you always.
