

Little Miss Faith Christen Bookert

August 25, 2017 - February 22, 2018

Little Miss Faith Christen Bookert was entrusted to Christopher and Endia Outen Bookert on August 25, 2017 in Columbia, South Carolina. Our Savior God summoned an angel for her late Thursday, February 22, 2018.

“Tootie” “Angel”, as she is affectionately known by her mother and father, was a jewel to be around. Her bright eyes and beautiful smile captivated everyone who knew and loved her. During Faith’s short tenure, in this foreign land, she managed to demonstrate strength through her tender loving heart. “Tootie” was a fighter who welcomed and needed the nurturing of her mother but, looked forward to having “daddy time”. “Angel” had a way of letting others know that she was truly a daddy’s girl. Faith loved her siblings and enjoyed observing them play. Her eldest brother was especially fond of being a “big brother” again to a baby sister.

There are many who share in mourning the transition of Little Miss Faith but, left to cherish the fondest memories are: her parents, Christopher and Endia Bookert; two brothers, David and Aaron Bookert; paternal grandmother, Mary Bookert; maternal grandparents, Stanley (Katherine) Booker and Emma (Curnell) Johnson; maternal great grandparents, Wallace Outen and Mary Outen; five, aunts; four uncles; god-parents, Antonio “Tony” and Tawana Roberson; a host of Word of God Church & Ministries “aunts” and “uncles” and a host of cousins, other loving relatives and friends.
