“ It is with great sadness that I send my condolences to Mother Samuel, Wayne and his sisters. With and outpouring of love and concern, I pray that your hearts are comforted by Almighty God’s grace and mercy. He sits high upon the throne and welcomes Brother Randy into His embrace. We know not the day or time of our Lord God’s call yet thank you Lord for welcoming us into His presence.

Mother Samuel and Wayne, take time to mourn and one day soon you will think of the life you shared with Brother Randy and smile knowing that he was loved. Take comfort in the memories of old and breath again fully without sadden but unspeakable Joy. He giveth and He taketh away. Let this be a time to embrace one another like a new day. Then smile and recall the laughter and the joy this soul brought to each heart present! My love, I give to you as a Freind in Christ!
