“ Anthony and Calvin, The Linguard family sends their love and condolences to you and your family. We only found out this past week that Roberta went home to be with the Lord. Roberta, Sue Wilson and our Mom (Harriett Linguard) were three peas in a pod! They loved each other dearly and it gives me great joy to know that they are now spending eternal life together with our Father. Continued blessings to you and your family.

“ Anthony and Calvin we had so many great memories when I stayed over with Aunt Roberta and you guys in South Carolina. We had so much as kids even though she considered it being mischievous . Remember when we were setting off fireworks and Anthony threw it right before it popped and almost lost a finger or two? Aunt Roberta came outside yelling about the plant you knocked over while running and screaming.....Those were the good old days

May she join her siblings and Uncle Bernard at the pearly gates of heaven.
