

Roland Edward Jackson

January 25, 1948 - June 22, 2019

Roland Edward Jackson of Columbia, SC entered into eternal rest on Saturday, June 22, 2019.

Rev. Roland Edward Jackson, affectionately known as, “Fuzzy” was born January 25, 1948 in Blythewood, South Carolina to the late Charles Culberth Jackson and Aszalee Wages. He departed this life on Saturday, June 22, 2019, in Columbia, South Carolina.

Fuzzy was a working man and had great work ethic. He worked for South Carolina Public Works, and later earned his certificate in Television and Radio Repair. Roland owned and operated, Jackson Roofing and Nail on 2.

Rev. Jackson was the Assistant Pastor at New Free Hope Independent Church, where he also sang on the Male Choir. Many people loved to hear him sing and pray. Fuzzy’s passion was fishing, which he could do all day and night, and he was a true Pittsburgh Steelers fan—“GO BLACK AND GOLD!”

Rev. Jackson was preceded in death by his wife, Janice M. Jackson, his brothers, James “Knuckle” Jackson, Phillip Jackson, and Nathaniel “Pee Wee” Jackson.

Garvin, of Charlotte, NC, Hope Jackson, of Elgin, SC, and Kellie (Lamar) Benjamin, of Ridgeway, SC; a nephew, but more like a son, Carlos (Tamara) Jackson, of Columbia, SC; his sisters, Pinky Rosemary Jackson, of Columbia, SC, Carolyn Wilson, of Maryland, Linda Stevenson, of Blythewood, SC; special friends, Larry Cunningham, who is like a brother, and Jeanette Chavis; and a host of other relatives and friends.
