“ I had the pleasure to get to know Xavier through our Basketball Officials class in 2008. As we rose through the ranks and continued gaining experience, Xavier was always very friendly and brotherly towards me. I appreciated him for that. I was able to glean knowledge from him based upon his opinions on what he would do in certain situations. His suggestions were always sound. Xavier was a great classmate, Basketball partner and friend. He will truly be missed. I pray that our Lord receives him well and is ready for some good conversation.

“ Hoping that the family is doing well at this time. Xavier and I became Friends as soon as we met, friendship grew stronger; turned to Brotherhood. My Mom let him move in and he never left our lives. For over 40 years that Brotherhood has lasted., it won't end today oh no; we'll be Brothers until time stands still
