A Time To Be Born

Ronda Aye Peterson-Parker was born February 9, 1965 to Pearlestine Aye Jones.

A Time For Success and Sharing

Ronda attended the public schools of Richland County, graduating from C. A. Johnson High School Class of 1983. She was a creative musician, and shared her talent with others. In her earlier years she attended Clement Rd. Church of God participating in various activities as well as schools. After a family dinner, you would often find Ronda playing the piano and singing. In 1983, she was joined in holy matrimony to Lemuel Norman Peterson and to this union two sons were born.

A Time To Die

Ronda departed this earthly life on Tuesday, January 26, 2021.

She was a person of blissful contentment, with a fun-loving, carefree spirit. And she was respected by her family, church and extended family. God blessed us immensely when He gave Ronda to us for a season. We are eternally grateful.

A Time To Release

Ronda would not want us to say goodbye to her. She loved her family and friends and enjoyed every moment that she could spend with them. She also loved her extended family, and embraced everyone in her circle of love.

Ronda is survived by her sons, Lemuel N. Peterson, II and Malcom X. Peterson; her parents George and Pearlestine Aye Jones; two brothers Twan (Sally) Aye, and Desmond (Nadiyah) Jones; a special friend Michael Vannort.; nieces, nephews, cousins and other relatives and friends.

Please leave the Parker family your condolences and prayers.

The Peterson - Parker family, acknowledges with grateful appreciation, all of your kind expressions of love and sympathy.

Thank you for helping us care for our families.

A. A. Dicks, Sr. and Staff.
