“ This lost has been greatly felt. Shaffon was one of the most transparent and authentic persons that I have met. She was a loving and devoted mother and daughter. The impact she made will not be forgotten. I pray that everyone finds comfort and strength in knowing that she was saved and is with our heavenly father. In God I trust, and I know that there is no better healer, provider and comforter. So I thank Him for allowing us to cross paths.

“ Confused and hurt is how I felt when I learned of your loss and my heart immediately went out to your mother and your son. It was both, one, or the other EVERY time you visited me or I saw you in the halls. Your presence will be greatly missed and I send my deepest condolences to your family and prayer through their time of grief.

“ I'm so sorry to hear of your family's loss. We are so appreciative of the time we got to know Ms. Thomas at our school. She made a huge impact, by volunteering in our Media Center. More so, I'm grateful for all that she's done for Shareiff. I know he will go on to make a wonderful mark on the world. She will continue to smile upon him and be proud of the way he will carry on her legacy. I'm sending lots of love and hugs to Shareiff and his family.

With sincerest sympathy,

Arleigh West
