Tonya married Aaron Evans in 2005 and they moved to High Point, North Carolina, where they became active members of Greater Saint Matthew's Fellowship Ministries. Her ministries were singing on the choir and working with the children, among others.

Tonya was a loving and devoted Wife, Mother, Daughter, Sister, Aunt, and Friend. Though physically she is no longer with us, her loving and kind spirit will forever be a part of the hearts and lives of all those who knew and loved her.

So many loving and wonderful memories of Tonya are left to her loving husband, Aaron Evans; a loving son, Johnathan Evans; a loving daughter, London Evans; her mother, Christian Brown; a very special aunt, Sadie Johnson; two brothers, Johnnie Brown, III, Wesley (Bonita) Brown; one sister, Courtney (Andre) Singleton; mother-in-law, Carolyn Evans; brother-in-law, Andric (Teesha) Evans; multiple aunts and uncles, nieces and nephews; Tonya was extremely close to her family, especially her first cousins who were more like siblings, and a host of other loving relatives and friends whom will miss her dearly.

“ It was, is, and will always be my honor and privilege to have known Tonya for 21 years and to have been married to her for 17 years. Today marks 30 days since she transitioned into heaven. There is no doubt in my mind, heart, and spirit that God welcomed Tonya with His open arms. Tonya was 1 in 8 Billion. No one touched my life like she did. I will forever thank the Lord for allowing me to share my life with such a wonderful and beautiful woman. #Tonya4ever.

“My deepest sympathies to the Brown and Evans families. Tonya was a bright light to all of us who knew and loved her. I attended Hand Middle School and Dreher High School with her. She was a year ahead of me so she always called me “Little Sis” and I called her “Big Sis”! I will forever cherish my Big Sis and remember her love and light always! I love you Tonya...rest in paradise...until we meet again.

I have known Tonya for over 15 years. She has been a consistent friend who you can always count on. Although she was seen as quiet we would have long talking sessions during hair appointments. She was one of my alto singing buddies for over 14 years at church. I will miss my sweet friend whom I loved like a little sister. Sleep on til we meet again. Gone but never forgotten 💔
