“ I’m heartbroken. I know now why we didn’t get reunited with our friendship after not seeing each other for over twenty years. When you were working at Family Dollar and I would see you we would only talk briefly. God knew you were not going to be here much longer. I watched your service at it was beautiful. Get your rest my friend until we meet again. My deepest prayer and condolences goes out to the family.💜💔

Your friend forever Barbara Heyward.

“ To the entire Redmond siblings and other family member:

As I reflect on my memories and share special condolences of Vincent, a student in my Algebra class (a class I did not plan to teach. but Dr. Johnson had other plans for me) as a first year teacher at CA Johnson HS , I have very special memories of a very quiet.but bright math student in Vincent Redmond.

I remember when Deacon & Mrs. Redmond began attending First Nazareth with their four children in tow & well dressed every Sunday.

They were all very well behaved as I recalled. Later, as we all matured and Vincent was appointed to the Trustee Ministry, where he became our long serving Treasurer and kept excellent records, maybe because I was his Algebra teacher, Lol. He was a shining star and was a very bright young man in his own right.

Over the years, after Vincent graduated from college and embarked on a career., always one in finances , our paths crossed regularly, outside of church and we became good friends after having a teacher-student relationship earlier.

I respected him very much for the gentle spirit that he was and for such a wonderful young man and quiet in his own right over the years.

Approximately a month and a half ago, I stopped by Family Dollar where he was manager to speak to him since I was in the neighborhood. He was not there, but his associate said he would be in later. I never made it back to the store.and therefore did not get to have a conversation before his unexpected transition. How I regret that I did not, as he was my student, my church member and my friend, who I held in such high esteem. I shall miss him as he has now transcended the boundaries of this earth to reside eternally in the Joy of Jesus!, our loving Savior.
