

Warren McCier

July 8, 1949 - October 20, 2015

Mr. Warren McCier passed away on Tuesday, October 20, 2015. Funeral Services for Mr. McCier are scheduled for 1:00 PM Wednesday, October 28, 2015 at A. A. Dicks Funeral Home Sullivan Chapel. Public Viewing will take place from 9:00-5:00 PM Tuesday, October 27, 2015 at A.A. Dicks Funeral Home Sullivan Chapel.

Mr. Warren McCier was born in McCormick, South Carolina to Samuel and Ruby Wright McCier on July 8, 1949. He departed this life October 20, 2015 in Kershaw County, South Carolina.

Warren attended the public school of Greenwood, South Carolina and became a freelance carpenter who took pride in his work. He used his passion for carpentry to provide for himself and his family. Some of his favorite sports were football and golf. Warren also loved to dress to impress and was fascinated with fine clothing. His daughter remembers him as a funny, good hearted person who would extend a helping hand to anyone in need. He enjoyed traveling, the beach and dining out.

Warren moved to New York City in the late sixties; where he met and married Rose Marie Young on May 27, 1972. To this union a child was born, Katrena R. A. McCier.

He was preceded in death by his parents and both his siblings.

He leaves to cherish precious memories: his wife, Rose McCier; a daughter, Katrena McCier (Stanley) Mitchell; a grandson, Kesean Mitchell; sisters-in-law Ruby McCier and Lois McCier both of Greenwood, South Carolina, Anganette Young of Wilmington, North Carolina; a brother-in-law, Thomas Ruffin, Jr. of Savannah, Georgia; an aunt, Ethel Saxton of Greenwood, South Carolina; an uncle, George Wright of New York and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other loving relatives and friends.
