

Willie Mae Hooper

February 8, 1955 - March 4, 2013

Willie Mae Hooper was born in Chester, SC on December 8, 1955 to the late John Robert and Mamie Stevenson Hooper. God called her home Monday, March 4, 2013.

Willie Mae attended the public schools of Chester County and graduated Lewisville High School. She enlisted in Job Corps and was stationed in Kentucky. Ms. Hooper also attended Midlands Technical College with an interest in computers.

As a former member of Greater St. Luke Baptist Church, she furthered developed her faith and shared it willingly with her two sons. Ms. Hooper was a great cook and would extend a helping hand to anyone in need. She worked hard to provide for her family in the janitorial, housekeeping and food services.

She was preceded in death by her parents and two brothers; Robert, Jr. and John Newt Colvin.

She is survived by: her sons, Bryan Colvin and Costillo Hooper of Columbia, SC; six sisters, Rosa Mae and Johnimae Colvin of Richburg, SC, Brenda Colvin of Chester, SC, Clara (Eddie) Young, Janie (Charles) Johnson both of Lancaster, SC and Margaret (John) Wylie of Rock Hill, SC; a brother, David Colvin also of Richburg, SC; six nieces; seven nephews; two special friends,

Leonard and Denise Hinnant and a host of other relatives and friends.