“ Ms. Willie Mae (Big Momma). Was my second mother growing up in Truxton there was never a day that she was not there and in my adult life away from home she has always in my heart. Going on seventy years you held my love, and I will miss you. I hear you now telling me of the time I was send back home to get a roll of toilet tissue, but instead of bringing a roll back to her I unrolled it clear across the street to bring it to you.

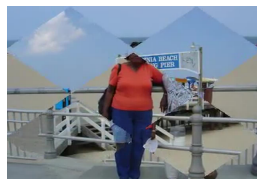

We will share these memories and more soon.

“ Mother Lovett will be truly missed. I been knowing Mother Lovett since i was a young baby. She basically knew me before i knew myself. She has always showed the Love of God. Her gentle sweet spirit and her warm embrace with a peck on my cheek, a smile of gold and always a word of encouragement.

It was a honor to have known her for her to be in your presence. A true Woman of God, she truly loved the Lord and didnt mind telling you about the Love of Jesus. My God you could see her light shining from within. I shall never forget those precious memories, for Mother Lovett is a part of my foundation that i grew up under at First Baptist Church South Portsmouth. Mother Lovett was my village. My deepest condolences & prayers are with the family during this time. Love , Angel

When I reminisce of Mother Lovett, I'm a young girl back at First Baptist Church South Portsmouth coming down from the balcony area after service. This sweet little church mother looks at me, opens her arms, gives me a big hug & says, sweetheart, you look just like yo' mama. I smile & hug her back, & I feel warm & happy all over. That's just the way she made you feel.

Some forty years later, when I returned back to my home church in Portsmouth, I remember mentioning her moving in with her daughter, Connie. She was gentle, but quick to answer that Connie moved in with her (just so I knew that she was still in charge - lol - and that she was!!!).

Deaconess Mother Lovett will always be remembered by the entire Cummings' family as a kind, caring, loving, strong & independent spirit. How we truly loved this beautiful woman of God & will dearly miss her. We will continue to pray for the entire family. May God bless and keep you.
