“ We laughed with the world
And all was right.
We thought we would be here forever
To talk of tonight.
But now we must part
And none of us can help but cry
For you were too young
To have to die.
Our hearts are broken
But eventually they will mend.
We will someday move on
But even then we will miss our friend.

Zina you will be missed by so many at SCDE but you will never be forgotten!

“ I am sorry to hear of your loss. The death of a loved one is one of the most devastating experiences a human can face. At times, the loss can seem unbearable. The Bible promises: "And the last enemy, death, will be brought to nothing." (1Corinthians 15;26) Then John 5:28,29 will be fulfilled that reads: "Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all that are in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." I hope this message will help you cope with the loss of your loved one.

*I work at the SC Department of Education and looked forward to seeing Miss Zina each day. She was always smiling! Some days she would have lunch with "the girls" in the canteen and she always made us laugh. We were always curious, wanting to know what she was having for lunch - she would tell us what a good cook her husband was and how he took good care of her.
I will miss seeing her smiling face.*
